

BEING A WORKPLACE REPRESENTATIVE

Leeds City Credit Union needs YOU!

Workplace Reps are essential to the development and delivery of credit union services within employers across the city. As a volunteer you have a wealth of knowledge that will help Leeds City Credit Union ensure that all your colleagues benefit from membership of Leeds City Credit Union.

You can help by:

- Encouraging your employer to provide payroll deduction facilities
- Encouraging your work colleagues to save with Leeds City Credit Union
- Encouraging your friends and family to join
- Providing Leeds City Credit Union with information about your employer
- Encouraging your employer to partner with Leeds City Credit Union on community projects
- Utilising your existing skills such as fundraising, marketing, administration or training

You can become a Leeds City Credit Union Workplace Rep by:

- Volunteering to promote the credit union to your employer
- Recruiting new members from amongst your work colleagues
- Holding a stock of stationery
- Being part of our Workplace Reps Network
- Being elected as a Director or Supervisor

You will develop new skills by:

- Being trained as a volunteer, supported by staff from Leeds City Credit Union
- Learning how to market and promote an ethical financial service
- Using those new skills for personal development
